

BBoy Mouse (UK)

Real Name: Ereson Ortega Catipon

Birth Date: 16 November 1979

Location: Manchester, UK

Nationality: Filipino

Height: 5'4" (162cm)

Shoe: 6UK

Style: Bboy, House, Hip Hop, Freestyle

Mouse is currently the reigning World Bboy Champion having won the solo battle at the 2006 Bboy Championships World Finals held at Brixton Academy,

Known for his smooth and funky style, Ereson 'Mouse' Catipon began bboying when he moved to England from the Philippines in 1996. Since his first exposure to the bboy culture, Mouse has dedicated the last 10 years to perfecting his art and now, having achieved his main goal to win the Bboy Championships, is setting his sights on a much more difficult task, to retain the crown this year!

Decorated with numerous solo bboy titles, Mouse is the leader of the Soul Mavericks bboy crew and his name has gained international respect as the forerunner of the UK breaking scene.

As a professional dancer, Mouse is an original member of the highly acclaimed Funkstylerz UK dance company. He has built up an impressive résumé of performances from major advertising campaigns to working with the likes of Madonna.

He is also part of the theatre show 'Life of a Bboy' which he co-wrote and choreographed with Funkstylerz UK. The show features the stories of the lives of three bboys and their journeys of discovery through bboying. The show toured the UK and Europe in 2006 and received rave reviews after performances to sell out crowds.

Mouse's cheeky personality and crowd pleasing moves make him a natural showman who is adored by audiences wherever he performs.

Mouse is currently an Armory sponsored athlete.